This matter has come before the District court of Guam, due to defendant's multiple harassment, intimidation and disruption of sleep by intrusion of privacy by several means, it is defendants unwritten corporate policy whenever Summons served upon them, Defendant automatically will launch an investigation

1 upon the plaintiff, in order to attempt negative psychological
2 effect and force the plaintiff to withdraw or dismiss the case.

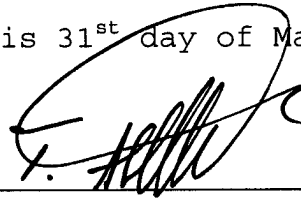

3 See Cecilia Shelly Vs. Continental Micronesia Inc. CV1373-95

4 (the plaintiff has conduit by which Continental Airlines (not 5 Continental Micronesia, inc.) Is attempting to blackmail
6 Plaintiff's husband, Mr. Van Shelly, into convincing to dismiss
7 her case against CMI.) There is no doubt in plaintiff's mind
8 today that blackmail actually occurred as plaintiff is in a same
9 situation. Plaintiff assertion in this case revolves by Ms.
10 Martha Woodward present at Human Resources Dept in a meeting
11 which took place both times after the Summons were served upon 12 the defendant, once on or about Jan 10, 2003 and the second time
13 on Mar 11, 2003.

14
15 Ms. Martha Woodward served Continental Micronesia as V.P of 16 Human Resources and retired with benefits and now serves "CMI"
17 as a consultant in litigations maneuvering, Ms. Martha Woodward 18 at the time of her retirement sensed a need for a an 19 investigation firm which later started and now owns and 20 operates, after plaintiff had first served Summons on Jan 10
21 2003, which alerted Continental Airlines that a litigation is 22 before them, Defendant hired Ms. Woodward's firm to investigate
23 the Plaintiff, this unwritten corporate policy of investigation
24 is in violation of private privacy act and invasion of privacy
25 is violation of the law.

1
2 Plaintiff prays and pleads to the District Court OF Guam to 3 take in to the consideration the strength, political influence, 4 and resources, which now defendant in litigation is using every 5 extended arm to put plaintiff in unfavorable position.
